

YOUR MISSION

I am sure you have heard someone say “I don’t know what I am here for” or maybe you have said those words yourself. This statement speaks to confusion and lack of purpose that can cause a person can wonder thru life aimlessly. The feeling of KNOWING what to do and even more how to do it brings with it confidence and self control. It is unfortunate that we live in a world that is defined by purposelessness. We live life in a perpetual fog, just kind of going from place to place, person to person with no real sense of direction. Thankfully there is a remedy...Psalm 119:105 gives us comforting words of encouragement “Your word is a lamp to my feet and a light for my path” we have all spent way too much time doing things and going places that gave back to us nothing. It is now time that we try something different. By different I mean choosing things that will bring with it life, peace, joy and fulfillment. The old adage is “insanity is doing the same things over and over, but expecting a different result!” I don’t know who to thank for that but how true it is! The bible offers to the reader a life filled with purpose, destiny and direction and not to mention joy, peace, prosperity, love and every fruit of the spirit given to one who trusts in Jesus as Lord. It has been said that the life you are living is just a summation of the choices you have made (good or bad). God desires that we walk in the fullness of life and all that it has to offer.

Prayer: God help me to see you as you are. Help me to discover the wonderful plan you have designed for my life, and grant me the power to live it without fear or intimidation. I trust you with where you are leading me. Amen
